Knowing What Works
Is In Our Nature.

In a perfect world, strategic projects drive organizational success by delivering new products, new functionality, new technology, and new business models. But often times the real-world challenge of getting from where an organization is to where it wants to be is severely tested by its ability to deliver projects successfully.

Strategic Project Management Practice

Organizations are not only challenged by the very nature of these new opportunities, they also must deal with aggressive timelines, complex and changing environments and, limited human and financial resources.

Interis project management professionals can help your organization understand your environment, control costs and timelines, align projects with strategic objectives, and plan and deliver projects successfully.

Interis' Strategic Project Management Practice is driven by best-of-industry practices, sound business acumen, hands-on experience, responsiveness to client needs, flexibility in unique environments and the wide-ranging knowledge of a team of strategic project management professionals. Interis professionals are known for their ability to seamlessly combine planning with implementation, leadership with teamwork, industry expertise with an appreciation of organizational realities and for a track record of project success.

Organizations that work with Interis on critical projects are better able to improve decision-making abilities, implement project management tailored to their specific environment, realize strategic objectives, and deal with any challenges that may arise.

Interis Strategic Project Management Services:

Strategic Project Office Capability Enhancement — The success of any project is largely dependent on the effectiveness of its governance model, management control and reporting framework. Interis establishes the project governance and management processes.

Strategic Project Office Operations — Effectiveness of a strategic project office is significantly increased when day-to-day management controls are carried out by experienced project management professionals. Interis professionals deliver core project office processes, monitor performance and provide valuable progress analysis – letting internal business and technical experts focus on their core project objectives.

Project Delivery Management — Practically speaking, projects are the only proven means to realizing operational change and enhancing organizational value. Implementing strong project management greatly reduces risk of projects not delivering project goals. Interis professionals will plan and manage the day-to-day activities and deliverables to accomplish the project objectives by removing obstacles, managing relationships, taking corrective actions when required, monitoring project performance and, ensuring a seamless transition and closure.

Strategic Project Review — An independent review of a project's performance – especially in the important early stages – will ensure that it gets off on the right track – by assessing strengths, identifying areas of concern and making recommendations to improve the probability of success. Interis' project reviews address key factors to ensure that your project is positioned for success by providing an independent and objective assessment of the health of your project.

Project Management Mentoring — Interis professionals have many years of hands-on project management experience on some of the largest projects in the country in both the public and private sectors. Interis leverages this experience in mentoring assignments, focusing on transferring our knowledge of project management best practices to both senior managers and project management professionals.

Authority and Funding — Getting a strategic project off the ground and keeping it moving requires securing authority, executive commitment and funding. Interis professionals have extensive experience in navigating control agency processes and controls. As a result Interis helps articulate your project's business value and navigates departmental and central agency review and approval processes. Interis experts assists in clarifying project objectives and identifying and analyzing various options for meeting them.

Project Management Maturity Assessment — An understanding of your organization's internal abilities to deliver complex projects can vastly improve outcomes, meet budgets and schedules, and contribute to project success. Using industry standards, Interis professionals provide qualitative and quantitative assessments of your organization's project management strengths and weaknesses, and provide recommendations for improving project management capabilities.

About Interis

Interis Consulting Inc. was founded in 1996 as a management consulting firm that focuses on providing independent and objective advice to clients in complex environments, often addressing significant changes to their business conditions.

The business outcomes are: enhanced abilities to protect corporate assets; improved predictability around corporate and investment performance; and harvested benefits from operational transformations made in the pursuit of market opportunities and corporate objectives.

Interis delivers value to clients through three complementary practices: Business Transformation — allows management to apply strategic management to investments. Risk and Management Assurance — ensures client risk profile remains within the approved thresholds. Strategic Project Management — assist clients in evolving from their current to their desired state.
